Did You Receive

In Spite of that Vacation

Your August number of the ADVOCATE OF PEACE?

Have you written us about it? If not, why not?

A good many have said some kindly things about it. Here are three quotations:

"I congratulate you upon the new paper and appearance of the ADVOCATE, and certainly its contents are ably and seriously presented."

"I must congratulate you and the country on the marked improvement which it seems to me the August ADVOCATE OF PEACE shows. * * * Keep up the good work of making it readable and up-to-date."

"Permit me to say, in the first place, that I think the new dress of the ADVOCATE OF PEACE is decidedly an improvement."

How do you feel about it? Can you help pass the good news along? Why not tell people about the work of the American Peace Society? Better still, why not send in the names of some friends, so that we may mail to them sample copies of the ADVOCATE OF PEACE?

Would You Like

To Receive Some Peace Literature Free?

For a short time only we offer to any one of our members in regular standing five publications from our list of peace literature, which is printed elsewhere in this issue, for every new member of the American Peace Society whose name is sent and paid for directly to this office. We repeat that this offer is for a limited period only and subject to withdrawal at any time.

For the protection of our stock, we are obliged to reserve the right to select the premium publications.

If you are interested, send the name of a new member today. To be valid, the application must be written upon the blank in the corner below.
